MASTERING THE ZODIAC

Twelve Zodiac signs rule the cosmos, each with their own personalities and powers. In this game, you will choose one to control, giving you an exciting rule-breaking Astral Power. If you can align four of your Night Stars before your opponent, you will have shown that you are worthy of wielding its power in your own life.

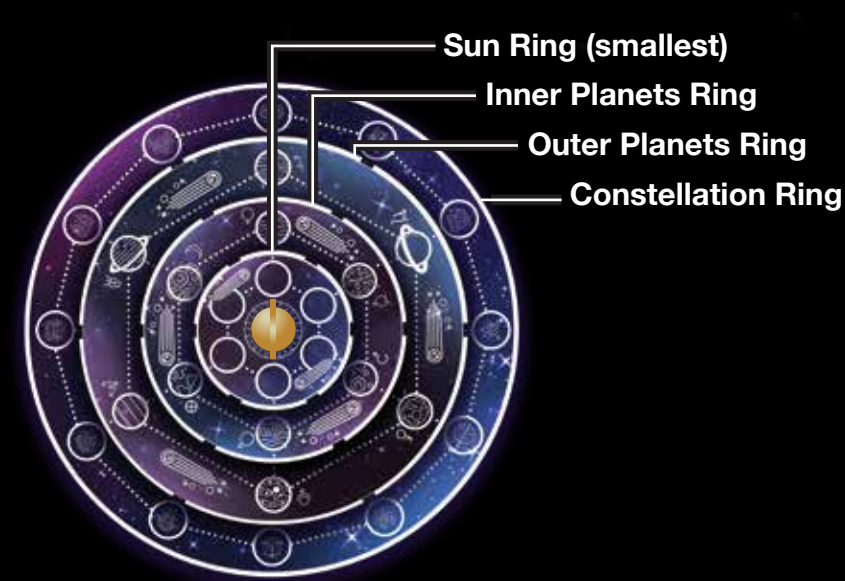

To begin the game, choose a Zodiac to play as. While many people like to play with their own Zodiac sign, the choice is yours – different signs have different powers, so it's recommended that you try playing with different signs each game until you find the ones you like the most. If you are unsure about which Zodiac sign is yours, turn this instruction sheet over to see the details of all twelve. Your Zodiac sign is determined by your birthday.

SETTING UP THE BOARD

Take the Zodiac Card associated with your sign, the 3D Zodiac Mover, and 10 Night Stars of a single color. Place your Zodiac Mover on your Constellation space, located on the largest ring of the Solar System Board. Place the Solar System Board in the middle of the table and position all the rings so that the circular spaces and lines are aligned. There are 12 spaces on the Constellation Ring, half of those spaces won't align with any ring. It doesn't matter which spaces align or how the rings are oriented.

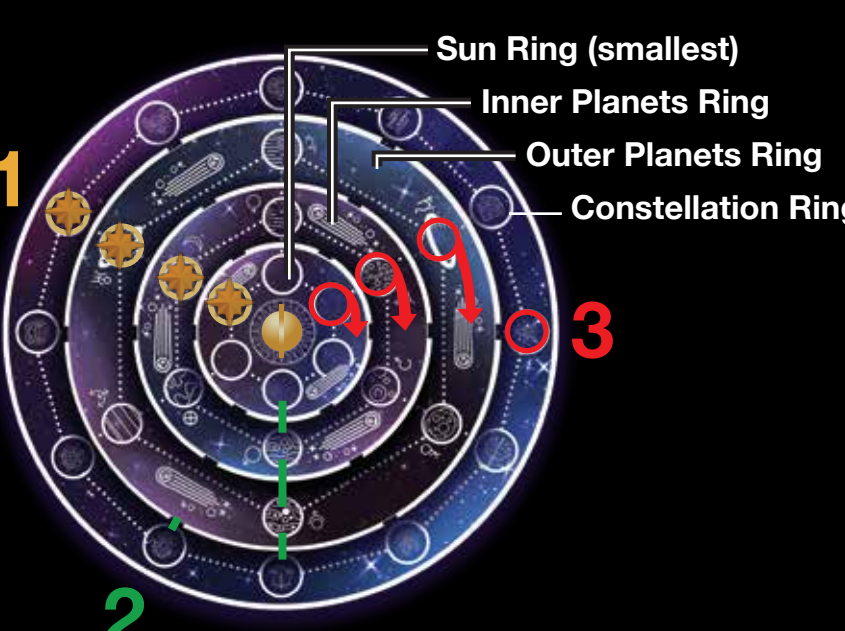

CHOOSING THE STARTING PLAYER

Once both Zodiac Movers are on the board, if only one mover doesn't have a straight path to the Sun Ring, that player will go first. If both movers have a straight path to the Sun Ring, rotate all rings besides the Constellation Ring so neither player has a straight path. The least experienced player goes first in this situation.

2 PLAYER GAMEPLAY

- 1 TO WIN: On your turn, if 4 of your Night Stars are in a straight line connecting the Constellation Ring to the Sun Ring, you win!
- 2 NEIGHBORING SPACES: Spaces on the Solar System Board are connected by dotted lines. Lines between rings should always connect, except for 6 of the 12 spaces on the Constellation Ring.
- 3 SPINNING RINGS: "One Alignment" means spinning the ring, and all rings above it, until the ring that is being manipulated connects with the next space on the ring directly below it. This concept is explained in detail below, for clarification. When spinning, rings must be rotated in a specific direction, denoted by the direction of the comets printed on that ring. However, since all rings above it are spun with the ring being manipulated, all the rings above will move with the ring being manipulated.

RINGS SPIN TOGETHER

The Sun Ring spins clockwise. When spinning this ring, it spins by itself, and the Sun Ring aligns with the next space on the Inner Planets Ring.

The Inner Planets Ring spins counter-clockwise. When spinning this ring, the one ring above spins with it, and the Inner Planets Ring aligns with the next space on the Outer Planets Ring.

The Outer Planets Ring spins clockwise. When spinning this ring, the two rings above spin with it, and the Outer Planets Ring aligns with the next space on the Constellation Ring.

The Constellation Ring does not spin.

4 PLAYER VARIATION (2 TEAMS)

Each player will choose a Zodiac to play as. Choose a teammate. Each team takes the 10 Night Stars of a single color. Place the Zodiac Movers on the Constellation Ring like normal. Whichever team has more movers that do not have a direct path to the Sun Ring goes first, and whichever player who doesn't have a direct path to the Sun Ring at the start of the game has priority to go before their teammate. The game is played normally, and table talk is allowed. You may only move your own Zodiac Mover. Teammates alternate turns.

VARIATION FOR HIGHLY STRATEGIC PLAYERS

The Action of placing a Star on your turn is eliminated. You will continue to perform 2 Actions per turn, but after your 2 Actions you MUST place a Star, keeping with placement rules. Example- Move, Move, Place Star. Or Spin, Remove Star, Place Star. If you cannot place a Star on your turn, you lose.

FIRE SIGNS

Fire signs are high-action, intense and passionate individuals. They love to explore new worlds and spark change, either destructive or constructive, within their solar journeys. As a result, the Fire Powers all channel strength from the impressive planets around them, granting increased movement and Star creation.

EARTH SIGNS

Earth signs are grounded, balanced, and have a love to exert control to organize their lives. Strongly set in their ways, they move everything else to achieve their goals rather than changing themselves. As a result, the Earth Powers cause Stars to move, giving more control and the ability to organize them efficiently.

AIR SIGNS

Air signs tend to have a problem fitting into the established order of the universe. They relish following the beat of their own drum and often find unique and artistic solutions to mundane problems. As a result, the Air Powers all exhibit unusual characteristics that take skill, strategy, and an unfettered mind to master.

WATER SIGNS

Water signs are the most emotionally deep of the Zodiac. Intuitive and mystical, they seem to exhibit great depths of understanding concerning themselves, others, and their environment. As a result, the Water Powers have increased their own movement capabilities, leaping through shortcuts others cannot perceive.

Astral Power: You have two Zodiac Movers clipped together as one Zodiac Mover to start. You may unclip or re-clip at any time as a free Action as long as the two occupy the same space. An unclipped single Mover can use both Actions, but may not use the Move Action twice in a turn.	CANCER June 21-July 22 Element: Water Ruling Planet: The Moon Sympathetic, Tenacious, Persuasive Life Direction: Loyal Personality: Cancer, because of its ruler the Moon, exists as a series of contradictions, such as the love of new adventures contrasted with an absolute yearning for security and safety. VIRGO August 23-September 22 Element: Earth Ruling Planet: Mercury Practical, Industrious, Analytical Life Direction: Conscientious Personality: Not one to wait for anything, Virgo takes action first out of all 12 signs. Misunderstood as being prude, you are ruled by higher motives, purity of purpose, and would never cheat or act in a way that would betray your higher intentions. Practical and organized, Virgo is always doing and moving towards a well-defined goal, so much that the individuals around you systematically take action towards it as well. Astral Power: If your Zodiac Mover is next to one of your Stars, you can spend an Action to move the Star as if it were a Zodiac Mover.	LIBRA September 23-October 22 Element: Air Ruling Planet: Venus Active, Artistic, Diplomatic Life Direction: Charming Personality: As a charmer seeking balance, Libra is the heart of fair play and diplomacy. Ruled by Venus, you enter on the road to be enriched through art, music, and beautiful locations. Libra is the born diplomat, able to charm others present into changing direction to create the balance you wish to bring to the world. Astral Power: When your Zodiac Mover is on a ring, you may move that specific ring the opposite direction. All rings above the one you're spinning still move with the ring you're manipulating. If you spin a ring in the opposite direction, the opponents may not spin that ring in their next turn. However, it does still move if rings below it are spun.	SCORPIO October 23-November 21 Element: Water Ruling Planet: Pluto Idealistic, Passionate, Unyielding Life Direction: Brave Personality: Scorpio is a sign of polarizing extremes and contradictions. AQUARIUS January 20-February 18 Element: Air Ruling Planet: Uranus Assertive, Eccentric, Inventive Life Direction: Friendly Personality: Aquarius is an unorthodox seeker of knowledge with little regard for the conventions of society. This makes Aquarius unparalleled in inventive capability, giving you the power to quickly combine logical strategies and creative solutions to send you on the path to greatness. Occasionally mistaken as eccentric due to Uranus being your ruling planet, you move to the best of your own drum and control your own path in an efficient, unique way. Astral Power: You may transport yourself through a pathway of your own Stars. If you neighbor one of your Stars, you may use an Action to move to any empty space that is connected to your current space by an unbroken pathway of your own Stars.	PISCES February 19-March 20 Element: Water Ruling Planet: Neptune Intuitive, Musical, Adaptable Life Direction: Compassionate Personality: As Pisces, you are the mystical sign of eternity and reincarnation.
